

MARY, QUEEN OF THE FAMILY PARISH, BLACKTOWN

Our Parish Mission Statement

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community. We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

We acknowledge the Darug people, the traditional custodians on whose land we worship.

WITH OPEN HEARTS AND MINDS

The Lord said to Elijah, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." (1 Kings 19:11.)

Dear Friends,

My name is John Laffan and I have been asked by Father Peter and the Parish Council to support the parish community in listening and gathering your responses to the Plenary question,

What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?

Pope Francis is asking our Parish to join all others in, 'advancing along a path of pastoral and missionary conversion.' Our Bishop Vincent has agreed that 'we are in the wilderness,' and that following the Royal Commission we need to reflect on our own healing and future. Now, we are being called to listen to the 'voice of God,' and share this with open hearts as our Church seeks change and rebirth.

In many ways, we are like the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus. They were travelling this road following the crucifixion of Jesus. They were afraid and questioned the future of their young communities. But it was on this road that Jesus appeared to them, 'and in the breaking of the bread,' they recognised him. The disciples never lost their faith, they never lost their hope.

Today we are being asked by our Church leaders to listen to God, to listen to one another. With open hearts and minds we will gather and be given opportunity to share our response to the plenary question, "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?"

Over these next months we will meet with all members of our faith community. We will visit our schools and will look to ways of reaching all those who wish to answer the question in the Blacktown community.

We are on the threshold of an important time within our Church. Our Church leaders realize that our future requires change. It is now our opportunity to support our Church by actively responding to the question in a Spirit of open minds and hearts. Like the two disciples, we are being asked to have courage at this time and believe that we can all make a difference.

- John Laffan

YEAR OF MARK - YEAR B

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established,
and there is none that can resist your will.
For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth,
and all that is held within the circle of heaven;
you are the Lord of all.

FIRST READING: GEN 2:18-24

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 127. R. V.5

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

SECOND READING: HEB 2:9-11

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia! If we love one another,
God will live in us in perfect love. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mk 10:2-16

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.' People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

Address for the Opening of the Australian Catholic Youth Ministry Convention 2018
Rooty Hill RSL, 23 September 2018

Dear friends,

It is with great joy that I welcome all of you to the Catholic Diocese of Parramatta, which I describe as Sydney in 3Ds: diverse; dynamic; and demographic heart of Sydney.

It is fitting that this Australian Catholic Youth Ministry Convention should be held at a place that is both the cradle of Catholicism in Australia and the face of multicultural society.

Parramatta has a distinction of being the site of the first official Catholic Mass and the first Catholic school in Australia. It is now the melting pot of our multicultural nation and we even have the first Asian-born bishop in Australia to prove it.

Of course, it is fitting too that this Convention should take place during the Year of Youth, with the Synod on Young People, Faith and Vocational Discernment to be held in Rome next month and then the World Youth Day in Panama soon after that. This emphasis on young people in the Church means that we take young people and their concerns seriously.

At times, you may think that the Church is led by a bunch of old men in dresses and that it is not relevant to your lives and relationships, your hopes and dreams, your challenges and struggles.

Think again, because Pope Francis wants to change that misconception. And so do the Church leaders in Australia, particularly with the Plenary 2020. The Church wants to engage, listen and accompany young people. The Church as the Body of Christ wants to be a safe, welcoming and nurturing oasis for all no matter what their background is or where they are on the journey of faith.

Here in Parramatta, I made it my goal to foster a Church where there is less an experience of exclusion but more an encounter of radical love, inclusiveness and solidarity. There can be no future for the living Church without there being space for those who have been hurt or alienated.

Like the early Christian community, the Church is called to accommodate and accompany the strong and the weak, the faithful and the wavering. It is not like a club with strict rules for its members. We are family (remember that song!). It is a family that cuts plenty of slack, makes plenty of room and accommodates those who struggle, question, doubt or stray.

Pope Francis has constantly challenged the Church to be a place where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live according to the Gospel. It is the challenge for us to live more fully, more boldly and more humbly at the periphery.

Remember his words in the Joy of the Gospel: "I prefer a Church which is bruised, hurting and soiled because it has been out on the streets rather than a Church which is unhealthy from being confined and from clinging to its own security." It is the Church that dares to do what Jesus did: to accompany the most vulnerable, to minister at the liminal and precarious places of human vulnerability, to empower all to live life more fully. Christianity is about commitment, courage, risk taking, daring to dream big dreams. That's what Abraham and Sarah did when they left their home and followed the big dream God had in store for them. Mary and Joseph, the disciples of Jesus did the same.

I am inspired by their examples and this is why I chose my motto to be "go further into deeper waters". I am and we all are challenged to abandon our comfort zones and to walk unfamiliar and unknown pathways in order to expand our horizons of faith, hope and love.

Christianity has everything to do with maximising our potential, with taking risks and living with enthusiasm and commitment. Pope Francis says he wants to see the young people making a mess. He wants them to make waves and shake things up in their environment. What he means is that we should not be content with status quo, especially when that status quo is less than what God wants for us. Australia is a wonderful country but it needs young Christian people especially to hold it to account in terms of its treatment of the vulnerable. We cannot be salt and leaven if we allow our Christian conscience to be desensitised by the inequality, injustice and inhumanity in our society and in the world.

We cannot be the disciple of Jesus and stay put. Discipleship is a journey that demands courage because it forces us to abandon security in favour of vulnerability, self-interest in favour of passion for justice and compassion for God's poor.

We are a very small, battered Church in Australia and one that is under siege. We can easily feel overwhelmed by the challenges and numbed by the negative things around us. Nevertheless, our call is not to go back to the known securities and certitudes of the past. It is to risk new frontiers of engagement and accompaniment.

The Barque of Peter is once again pushed out into deeper and more treacherous waters. Here, in the new exile and inhospitable environment, we must learn to walk with others. We must learn to incarnate the Gospel spirit in our lived experience. We must learn to be the humble servants of the Kingdom and the sacrament of God's love and presence in the world. That is the conviction that all of us must have as youth ministers. It is what I call "passion for the Kingdom" that is in our Christian DNA. The greatest service that a youth minister can do is to be a travelling companion to the young, with a heart of love more than a head full of ready-made answers.

The Church must become the traveling companion of young people – and that is what we mean by youth ministry. If, indeed, "it takes an entire village to raise a child," then it certainly takes an entire Church to journey with young people as they grapple with the Good News and respond in discipleship.

I wish you all an invigorating, challenging and fruitful convention. May the Holy Spirit guide us as we seek to be companions on the journey, builders of the Kingdom and evangelisers of the world.

Ivan Cauchi is the Ministry Lead for Family Groups. Ivan shares his thoughts about being part of the MQOF community.

What do you enjoy about being part of MQOF Community?

Being part of the MQOF Community is first of all an opportunity to meet new people, listen to and learn from their life stories, enriching my own understanding of other people, cultures and aspects of daily life, and the challenges of the intersection between faith and life. With time, enduring relationships can form in which members support each other in their life journey.

What does the Ministry lead for the Catechists look like to you?

My role is to initiate and direct activities attractive for the group, maintain contact with members and seek out new ones, foster an open and warm environment where members can feel comfortable enough to share their experiences in an empathetic setting.

Can you tell us a bit about your ministry?

Membership of the group is open to people from the parish and beyond, of all ages, families with or without kids, single parents or the elderly.

One family group meets every few weeks or so, usually in an outdoor setting (weather permitting), or occasionally in a member's home or the parish hall. Members usually bring some food or drink to share, and relax in each other's company, sharing their life and faith stories and offering support for each other, building new and strengthening existing relationships as they go along. Participants can be as active or relaxed as they like. Kids usually run around and play to their hearts content, and adults discuss any topics of interest, in a fun and open environment.

Another family group consists of just elderly people, who meet once a month for lunch in a restaurant. They likewise share their life stories and support each other, some participating in other parish or social justice activities outside the group.

Anyone interested can get in touch with me. The family groups all look forward to meeting new people.

Leave your contact details at the Parish Office if you would like to enquire about sharing your faith with others!
