

MARY, QUEEN OF THE FAMILY PARISH, BLACKTOWN

Our Parish Mission Statement

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community. We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

We acknowledge the Darug people, the traditional custodians on whose land we worship.

Standard Operating Procedures for the liturgy

As was announced last weekend in the parish notices, there has recently been a review of the parish's Standard Operating Procedures for the liturgy. This review was opened to the whole parish to make submissions in the middle of the year via an announcement at Mass. Once submissions were received, the parish team, in conjunction with the liturgy committee, undertook a review of these Procedures. The up-dated Procedures will take effect from 6th December 2019 at the Ministry Mass.

Over the next few weeks, parishioners will find those changes that are most visible and that impact the whole congregation explained in the bulletin and elsewhere.

The first change that parishioners will notice is that from 6th December, the welcome slides before Mass will be much reduced. There are several reasons for this. One reason is that it brings our parish into line with the current Guidelines for the Use of Visual Display Systems in Liturgical Celebrations, which indicate that any welcome slides should be brief, consisting of perhaps, 'an image', and that 'Slideshows of images are to be avoided during liturgical celebrations'¹.

Parishioners will also notice that there will no longer be an Acknowledgement of Country at every Sunday Mass. The parish team sought advice on this practice from the Australian Catholic Bishop's Conference Commission for Relations with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and related that advice to the liturgy committee, who were in agreement with the proposed change. This Commission advised that it is not necessary to Acknowledge Country at every Sunday Mass, and that a permanent feature in the church or in the bulletin would be quite acceptable, as is the practice in the Archdiocese of Melbourne. This is something we already do in our own bulletin. Rather than attempting to exclude anyone this change reflects the desire of the Church to welcome everyone by not singling out any particular group among us, particularly at the Mass where we are to reflect in our prayer the words of St. Paul: 'There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.' Galatian 3:28.

Look here for next week's explanation of another adjustment to liturgies at Mary, Queen of the Family.

YEAR OF LUKE - YEAR C
Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 37:22-23

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

First Reading: Wis 11:22-12:2

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 144:1-2.8-11.13-14.R. see v.1

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God

SECOND READING: 2 Thes 1:11-2:2

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: 1 Jn 3:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Lk 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half of my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount. 'And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 15:11

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.

Frankly Speaking...

"Gossip can also kill, because it kills the reputation of the person! It is so terrible to gossip! At first it may seem like a nice thing, even amusing, like enjoying a candy. But in the end, it fills the heart with bitterness, and even poisons us."

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONFERENCE

The Catholic Church in Australia is dedicating the month of November as a time to pray for those affected by crippling drought conditions and to pray for the gift of rain.

Parishes, schools, families and other Catholic communities across the country are being encouraged to participate in the National Prayer Campaign for Drought, which also invites people to provide assistance to those most in need.

The Bureau of Meteorology says that, on some measures, the current drought is the worst in 100 years or more, with most parts of Australia's eastern states declared to be in drought.

Bishop Columba Macbeth-Green OSPPE from Wilcannia-Forbes oversees a diocese that covers about half of New South Wales, including some of the most drought-affected areas in the country.

He said the month of prayer is an additional response to the local work being done in affected communities.

"Some of our Catholic ministries, along with other faith-based, charitable and government organisations, are doing remarkable work, supporting people with material needs, offering financial support and responding to people's psychological and spiritual needs," Bishop Columba said.

"In some dioceses, practical responses like school fee relief or support with rising utility bills can ease an increasing burden for families.

"But in a Catholic context, prayer must be a part of our response."

Bishop Columba said the Bible, in both the Old and New Testaments, has stories of rain being "God's gift" to people who are suffering,

"In times of drought like we are experiencing now, we should pray for God's gift of rain, which will have the power to quench our arid lands and also lift many people's fallen spirits," he said.

Bishop Columba said the National Prayer Campaign must be truly national, noting that the whole country suffers when there is a drought – especially one of this magnitude. The Church needs to be an example of recognising that reality.

"That people living where there is plentiful, or at least enough, water don't seem aware of how much suffering the drought is causing only adds to the hardship of those in drought-affected communities," he said.

"The Church across Australia – lay people, religious, priests and bishops alike – needs to stand in solidarity with those suffering most acutely, offering prayers and practical support to those in most need."

Prayer resources have been developed for parishes, schools, communities and families to participate in the National Prayer Campaign. They can be accessed at www.catholic.org.au/drought

It is with great joy that the parish team wishes to announce the new members of the Parish Pastoral Council.

Chair: Cecil Fernandes

Deputy chair: Ruth Miranda

Secretary: Eva Cheetley

Other council members: Harlene Peterson, Phi Nguyen, Nathan Fernandes, Jude Miranda, Sidney Lazum, Debojit Roy, Joseph and Ashley Azzi.

These members were elected on 24th August 2019 and met for the first time on 19th October, after the parish AGM. Their membership on the council is for two years with the possibility of another two year term.

Their role as members of the council is to represent all parishioners in providing a consultative support to the clergy team in the pastoral direction and activity of the parish. They are your representatives, so please do not hesitate to raise with them things you would like the PPC to discuss. And, of course, please keep them in your prayers.
