

MARY, QUEEN OF THE FAMILY PARISH, BLACKTOWN

Our Parish Mission Statement

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community. We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

We acknowledge the Darug people, the traditional custodians on whose land we worship.

Sunday, 16 February Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Choose Good and Be Free!

The gospel of Luke presents us the story of the rich young man who asked Jesus with this question: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" The reply of Jesus is thought provoking: "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone" (Luke 18:18-19). At the heart of the question of what is truly good is also the question of the truth about God and the reality of his encompassing authority as the expression of his love for all. There's a long and complex history of thoughts and opinions about this matter but at the bottom of all those should be our desire to do what is good to be able to love generously and selflessly. After all, this is our Christian vocation. St. Therese of the Child Jesus said, "My vocation is to love."

Our Christian faith compels us to be free to do what is authentically good and to do it for the greatest reason, that is, to share in the mission of Christ in building up the kingdom of God here on earth. The Book of Sirach (first reading) reminds us that choosing is our gift of freedom. It is within our human capacity to choose from among the options before us: we can choose God or not, choose life or death, choose good or evil. However, to choose contrary to what is good will ultimately lead us to death and destruction. The fathers of the Second Vatican Council write, "Only in freedom can man direct himself towards goodness....Authentic freedom is an exceptional sign of the divine image within man. For God has willed that man remain 'under the control of his own decisions,' so that he can seek his Creator spontaneously, and come freely to utter and blissful perfection through loyalty to Him." However, "Man's freedom has been damaged by sin, only by the aid of God's grace can he bring such a relationship with God into full flower." (Gaudium et Spes no. 17).

Holiness is the main point of the Gospel (Mt 5:17-37). Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you, unless your holiness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter into the kingdom of God." There's more beyond the legalistic observance of the law but also to a minimalistic response to the demands of charity. The illustrations in the Gospel narrative provoke our creative response to the challenges of Christian life more than observing the Ten Commandments. What gives us a sense of holiness is a deeper reverence to life and relationship with others and with God. Jesus Christ has shown us this way through his selflessness which can be a folly to the eyes of those who do not have faith in him. He is the perfect embodiment of wisdom.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 30:3-4

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

FIRST READING: SIR 15:15-20

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 118:1-2. 4-5. 17-18. 33-34. R. V.1

Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

SECOND READING: 1 COR 2:6-10

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mt 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven
And earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the Kingdom. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mt 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 77:29-30

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;
they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Thousands sought Jesus during his life.
Only a few followed him to Calvary.

What will you do?

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, No Greater Love is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. Best-selling author Edward Sri guides you through the last hours of Christ's life. You will walk step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you—and grow closer to Jesus.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!

We appeal to our beloved Mary, Queen of the Family parishioners to please make a DONATION for our new Audio and Visual Systems.

Our St Patrick's church faulty sound system, screens and projectors are badly in need of a replacement and we cannot achieve this without your support. We humbly ask you to consider contributing to this massive undertaking. It is something we need for our church and the amount involved is estimated to be around $106,000. The installation of the new sound system, screens and projectors will enhance the celebration of the Holy Mass, whereby the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ can be fully heard and appreciated.

It doesn't matter if you cannot make a large contribution, bear in mind that every little bit will help. Remember what Jesus said about the poor widow's contribution in Mark 12:41- 44. "I assure you that this poor widow has put in more than everyone who's been putting money in the treasury. All of them are giving out of their spare change, but she from her hopeless poverty has given everything she had, even what she needs to live on."

We hope and pray that you will consider making a donation for this great undertaking that we are making together.

God bless us.

Yours in Jesus Christ,

Fr. Regie Lavilla, MSP
