‘We know that by turning everything to their good God co-operates with all those who love him...’

These are undoubtedly very consoling words from St. Paul in the second reading this Sunday, and they are opportune for our moment; for just as we were seeming to get back to normal, our churches opening up to something like pre-covid life, new restrictions have been announced. This can easily leave us wondering what on earth God is doing in all this, or at least how we are supposed to receive this moment.

St. Paul says it all in this brief but profound passage. He speaks to us of how God is ever resourceful, how God does not waste a single moment to work something good for us. Whether we are in sad circumstances, trying, joyful, or hopeful, God is working in all for our goodness. This moment of new restrictions is no different. God is working in this, he is actively attempting to bring out some good for us, all of us. It is certainly not immediately clear what that might be, and it will probably be something slightly different for each of us – time often reveals God’s workings. But the Word of God is reminding us on the very weekend when things seem to be getting a bit harder, a bit more unpredictable, a bit more panic-inducing, that he is very much active, and he is trying to bring goodness for us through it all.

Shall we listen to this word from God; a word that should assure us, stabilise us, calm us? Or will we allow the noise of panic, fret, worry, and obsession to flood our ears instead? Are we playing over in our minds: ‘God is working for my good in this’, or are we repeating: ‘This is out of control’? Is this refrain ‘Jesus, I trust in you’ playing over and again in our hearts, or are we endless repeating, ‘What if?’

These are difficult times, and we ought to be prudent and healthy and help each other be healthy. But is our prudence rooted in a deep trust of God’s providence, or is it driven by fear and panic. Something to ask ourselves this week.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 67:6-7, 36

God is in his holy place,
God who unites those who dwell in his house;
he himself gives might and strength to his people.

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 3:5,7-12

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 118:57,72, 76-77,127-130 R.v.97

Lord, I love your commands.

SECOND READING: Rom 8:28-30

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mt 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mt 13:44-52

Jesus said to the crowds, ‘The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.

‘Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.

‘Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, the fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

‘Have you understood all this?’ They said, ‘Yes.’ And he said to them, ‘Well, then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.’

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Ps 100:2

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Frankly Speaking...

“What is the secret of finding the Treasure? There isn’t one. The Treasure is everywhere. It is offered to us at every moment” ...Pope Francis

Catechism of the Catholic Church

St Ignatius of Loyola (Feast day - 31 July 2020)

St. Ignatius came from a family of minor nobility in Spain's northern Basque region. One thing to know about Ignatius is that he was far from saintly during much of his young adult life. He was vain, with dreams of personal honour and fame. He gambled and was not above sword fighting. As some have noted, he might have been the only saint with a notarized police record: for taking part in a night time brawl.

All that began to change one day in the spring of 1521. Ignatius was 30 years old at the time, an officer in the Spanish army. Leading his fellow soldiers into a battle against the French that they were sure to lose, he was struck by a cannonball in the leg. During a difficult recovery (he limped for the rest of his life), the young man asked for books about chivalry — his favourite reading. There weren't any at the family castle where he convalesced. He had to settle for a book about the life of Christ and biographies of the saints — which he found unexpectedly riveting.

St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him. God, he realized, was working within him — prompting, guiding, inviting. As he travelled far and wide, he realized too that God was similarly at work in the lives of all people, in the everyday events of the world.

These experiences would prove to be the beginning of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry. While in Paris, Ignatius gathered around him some friends or "companions," as they became known. Together they made religious vows in 1534 and came to call themselves the Compañía de Jesús — the Society of Jesus. Six years later, the order was granted official approval by the pope.

The early Jesuits fanned out to the metropolises of Europe and beyond. They did so with instructions from Ignatius, their leader in Rome, to "seek the greater glory of God" and the good of all humanity. They devoted themselves to the care of souls, to helping people discern God's presence in their lives.

Shalom Media is a catholic ministry that works with the church to evangelize those who do not know Christ and strengthen those who are in Christ through all means of media. In the current situation of the coronavirus pandemic, Shalom ministry has taken an initiative to do the Daniel fasting prayer to implore the Lord Almighty.

Daniel Fasting – 21 days spiritual journey with prayers and sacrifices from Aug 1st to 21st - is the deliberate and intentional dedication to focus on God and humbling oneself in the presence of almighty God. We do this with the same fervor and urgency shown by prophet Daniel for his people and nation. Expecting a great manifestation of God's power upon the current pandemic, we lift our hands and hearts to the Lord for supernatural breakthroughs in our lives and in the world.

“I ate no savoury food, took no meat or wine, and did not anoint myself at all until the end of the three weeks” (Daniel 10:3)

Fr. Roy Varghese Palatty CMI (Spiritual Director, Shalom Media)

will be leading this initiative.

Registration for this event is free. For more details about Daniel Fasting Prayer please visit our website link below.
