Rejoice Always!

On this Third Sunday of Advent, St Paul has invited us to “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing and give thanks to our God who sent His Son Jesus Christ to save us.” We also sing the Entrance Antiphon, “Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice.” In the history of salvation, when we speak of the coming of Jesus Christ, we speak joyfully of the celebration of His birthday for many reasons. Yet undeniably many experience prolonged pain of poverty in life. Perhaps children, relatives and friends moved away from them and they become isolated and lonely. Maybe they are affected by current situation of pandemic. Their hearts are broken with sadness and sorrows. They are doing tough. They may find happiness elusive especially during this Christmas season. What is our response?

St Paul calls us to share our joyous celebration with them by offering Christian duty of care through prayer, if we cannot offer practical and material help. We need to discover once again the reason for “Christmas” God coming to us in the flesh. This is the reason for our celebration.

We rejoice in the coming of Jesus that fits this Sunday’s Gospel when John says, “There is one among you, unknown to you, not recognised and that one is the Messiah, the Anointed One.” The Messiah’s coming is to establish the Kingdom of God, the kingdom of joy, peace and love for one family under God. He brings Good News to the poor, healing to the sad and grieving, freedom to the imprisoned and enslaved.

We rejoice the coming of Jesus because he brings abundantly happiness and justice that flourish among people. The joy should not just be things that we feel great about, but to remember those suffering and help them even if with a small gift because it is where we find the joy of Christmas.

We celebrate the coming of Jesus Christ as St Paul encourages us that the cause of our joy must be moved by the Spirit. That the Spirit teaches us to realise what is truly good and evil.

Deacon John

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Phil 4:4-5

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.

FIRST READING: Is 61:1-2, 10-11

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lk 1:46-50, 53-54. R.
Is 61:10

My soul rejoices in my God.

SECOND READING: 1 Thes 5:16-24

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Is 61:1 (Lk 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Jn 1:6-8, 19-28

A man came, sent by God.
His name was John.
He came as a witness,
as a witness to speak for the light,
so that everyone might believe through him.
He was not the light,
only a witness to speak for the light.

This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked, 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not,' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied:

a voice that cries in the wilderness:
Make a straight way for the Lord.'

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you – unknown to you – the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf. Is 35:4

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.
Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

We are a welcoming parish... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Mary, Queen of the Family. If you are not an active member of this Community, consider partaking in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perchance you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries such as: Minister of Holy Communion, Reader/Commentator, Welcomer, Minister of DVP/Power Point, etc. Volunteers are formally registered by filling out a Join a Ministry form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging.

For more information and to arrange receiving of the sacraments, please contact the Parish Office on 9622 1125.

THE FORMATION OF CONSCIENCE

1783 Conscience must be informed and moral judgment enlightened. A well-formed conscience is upright and truthful. It formulates its judgments according to reason, in conformity with the true good willed by the wisdom of the Creator. The education of conscience is indispensable for human beings who are subjected to negative influences and tempted by sin to prefer their own judgment and to reject authoritative teachings.

1784 The education of the conscience is a lifelong task. From the earliest years, it awakens the child to the knowledge and practice of the interior law recognized by conscience. Prudent education teaches virtue; it prevents or cures fear, selfishness and pride, resentment arising from guilt, and feelings of complacency, born of human weakness and faults. The education of the conscience guarantees freedom and engenders peace of heart.

1785 In the formation of conscience the Word of God is the light for our path,⁵⁴ we must assimilate it in faith and prayer and put it into practice. We must also examine our conscience before the Lord's Cross. We are assisted by the gifts of the Holy Spirit, aided by the witness or advice of others and guided by the authoritative teaching of the Church.⁵⁵

TO CHOOSE IN ACCORD WITH CONSCIENCE

1786 Faced with a moral choice, conscience can make either a right judgment in accordance with reason and the divine law or, on the contrary, an erroneous judgment that departs from them.

1787 Man is sometimes confronted by situations that make moral judgments less assured and decision difficult. But he must always seriously seek what is right and good and discern the will of God expressed in divine law.

1788 To this purpose, man strives to interpret the data of experience and the signs of the times assisted by the virtue of prudence, by the advice of competent people, and by the help of the Holy Spirit and his gifts.

1789 Some rules apply in every case:

- One may never do evil so that good may result from it;

- the Golden Rule: "Whatever you wish that men would do to you, do so to them."⁵⁶

- charity always proceeds by way of respect for one's neighbour and his conscience: "Thus sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience . . . you sin against Christ."⁵⁷ Therefore "it is right not to . . . do anything that makes your brother stumble."⁵

MQOF COVID-19 SAFETY PLAN KEY POINTS

Commencing 7th December 2020

- With the announcement of new easing of restrictions commencing Monday, 7th December, we are limited by the 2 square meter rule. However, the 1.5-meter social distancing per household still applies. We are allowed to have 500 at St Patrick's Church and 180 for St Michael's Church at any one time, excluding the clergy and those involved in the liturgy.
- For contact tracing, we still need to register via online or by contacting the Parish Office during office hours or complete a Mass Attendance Slip, which are available in the foyer. Feel free to take home a few slips so you can complete them before going to church to avoid delay. Drop the completed slip on the day you are attending in the designated box provided in the foyer.
- Congregational singing is now permitted, but 12 years or older are advised to wear a mask
- On arrival at the church, please sanitize your hands using the sanitizer supplied in the foyer.
- Please sit on the seats that are marked. However, if you are from the same family group, you are allowed to sit together.
- During Communion, please form one line and you are required to maintain physical distancing at all times.
- At the conclusion of Mass, please disinfect the chair you used before leaving with the disinfecting wipes provided at the church foyer.
- You are requested not to socialize inside or outside the church but leave as soon as possible after Mass.
- You are not allowed to enter the church if you are experiencing cold or flu-like symptoms, have a temperature, been in contact with anyone that is either a suspected or confirmed case of COVID-19 even if you have made a Mass booking. Catholics from Parramatta Diocese are still dispensed from their Sunday Mass obligation until further notice.

We sincerely thank you for understanding, and for playing your part in keeping our community safe.

Christmas is Sharing please consider Giving to your parish!

Our main source of income is greatly depleted with the restrictions in attending Masses. Please consider how you can still support our Mary Queen of the Family Parish by signing up to contribute online.

Setting up a one-time or recurring donation/Planned Giving is quick and easy. Just go to: www.mqofblacktown.org.au/donations.

Thank you to all the donors. Donations are still welcome.

Thank you so much for your support of our parish. We are grateful!

TAP & GO MACHINE

The passing of collection plates by parishioners along the pews is now a thing of the past as most dioceses and churches have already decided to stop using it to help stop the spread of the virus.

The machine is set at $10, to donate more than $10 simply tap your credit card as many times as you like. It also accepts Apple Pay, Google Pay and Pay Wave. All contributions go to the maintenance and development of the Parish as does the second collection at weekend Masses.

Planned Giving (Direct Debit) is also an option if you wish to do cashless donation to the parish, forms are available in the foyer and on our parish website. Collection buckets are still also available in the church and foyer.

Office Hours for Christmas/New Year

Please be advised that the parish office will be closed for 2 weeks from 12pm Thursday 24 December 2020 until Friday 8 January 2021.
