OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

Prepare!

The act of preparing is part of our human existence. We prepare for our meals, for school or work, for overseas holidays (hopefully in the near future). For any changes we want to make in our organisation, it involves a substantial amount of time in preparation. Although preparation has been part of our daily existence, there are times that we are not fully prepared as we procrastinate. We keep doing the 'last minute' preparation. I am guilty of it!

In our Gospel this 2nd Sunday of Advent, we have St John the Baptist as the 'messenger of God', 'the voice that cries in the wilderness' and the who 'prepares the way for the Lord'. He preached about 'repentance for the forgiveness of sins.' St John the Baptist is the model for our Advent preparation. He is leading us to the Messiah—our Lord Jesus Christ.

In this Season of Advent, we need to prepare. It is not an outward preparation; but it is an inward preparation. Advent gives us a chance to spiritually prepare ourselves. "Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight!" (Mk 1:3). Let us make a massive space in our life for the Lord, not just an hour a week but every day.

The Season of Advent is a great time for us to learn how to let go of the things we need to let go so that we can live our life to the full. We need to let go of our own selfishness, hurt feelings, hatred, arrogance. And as we let go, we let God play a big role in our life. As we spiritually journey through this Advent, let us ask the grace of God to guide us in our preparations—our spiritual preparations so that we will have a more renewed and fruitful encounter with the child Jesus on Christmas. Amen.

Fr John Paul

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT - YEAR B

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Is 30:19, 30

O people of Sion, behold,
the Lord will come to save the nations,
and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart.

FIRST READING: Is 40:1-5, 9-11

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 84:9-14. R.v.8

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING: 2 Pt 3:8-14

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Lk 3:4-6

Alleluia, alleluia!
Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all people shall see the salvation of God.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mk 1:1-8

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah:

Look, I am going to send my messenger before you;
he will prepare your way.
A voice cries in the wilderness:
Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight,

and so it was that John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey. In the course of his preaching he said, 'Someone is following me, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals. I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Bar 5:5; 4:36

Jerusalem, arise and stand upon the heights, and behold the joy which comes to you from God.

WELCOME!

We are a welcoming parish… you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Mary, Queen of the Family. If you are not an active member of this Community, consider partaking in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perchance you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries such as: Minister of Holy Communion, Reader/Commentator, Welcomer, Minister of DVP/Power Point, etc. Volunteers are formally registered by filling out a Join a Ministry form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging.

For more information and to arrange receiving of the sacraments, please contact the Parish Office on 9622 1125.

Frankly Speaking...

"Advent increases our hope, a hope which does not disappoint. The Lord never lets us down."

…Pope Francis

Catechism of the Catholic Church

What is conscience?

1776 "Deep within his conscience man discovers a law which he has not laid upon himself but which he must obey. Its voice, ever calling him to love and to do what is good and to avoid evil, sounds in his heart at the right moment.... For man has in his heart a law inscribed by God.... His conscience is man's most secret core and his sanctuary. There he is alone with God whose voice echoes in his depths."[47]

1777 Moral conscience,[48] present at the heart of the person, enjoins him at the appropriate moment to do good and to avoid evil. It also judges particular choices, approving those that are good and denouncing those that are evil.[49] It bears witness to the authority of truth in reference to the supreme Good to which the human person is drawn, and it welcomes the commandments. When he listens to his conscience, the prudent man can hear God speaking.

1778 Conscience is a judgment of reason whereby the human person recognizes the moral quality of a concrete act that he is going to perform, is in the process of performing, or has already completed. In all he says and does, man is obliged to follow faithfully what he knows to be just and right. It is by the judgment of his conscience that man perceives and recognizes the prescriptions of the divine law:

> Conscience is a law of the mind; yet [Christians] would not grant that it is nothing more; I mean that it was not a dictate, nor conveyed the notion of responsibility, of duty, of a threat and a promise.... [Conscience] is a messenger of him, who, both in nature and in grace, speaks to us behind a veil, and teaches and rules us by his representatives. Conscience is the aboriginal Vicar of Christ.[50]

1779 It is important for every person to be sufficiently present to himself in order to hear and follow the voice of his conscience. This requirement of interiority is all the more necessary as life often distracts us from any reflection, self-examination or introspection:

> Return to your conscience, question it.... Turn inward, brethren, and in everything you do, see God as your witness.[51]

1780 The dignity of the human person implies and requires uprightness of moral conscience. Conscience includes the perception of the principles of morality (synderesis); their application in the given circumstances by practical discernment of reasons and goods; and finally judgment about concrete acts yet to be performed or already performed. the truth about the moral good, stated in the law of reason, is recognized practically and concretely by the prudent judgment of conscience. We call that man prudent who chooses in conformity with this judgment.

1781 Conscience enables one to assume responsibility for the acts performed. If man commits evil, the just judgment of conscience can remain within him as the witness to the universal truth of the good, at the same time as the evil of his particular choice. the verdict of the judgment of conscience remains a pledge of hope and mercy. In attesting to the fault committed, it calls to mind the forgiveness that must be asked, the good that must still be practiced, and the virtue that must be constantly cultivated with the grace of God:

> We shall . . . reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.[52]

1782 Man has the right to act in conscience and in freedom so as personally to make moral decisions. "He must not be forced to act contrary to his conscience. Nor must he be prevented from acting according to his conscience, especially in religious matters."[53]

MQOF COVID-19 SAFETY PLAN KEY POINTS

Commencing 23rd October 2020

- With the announcement of new restrictions commencing Friday, 23rd October, we are allowed to have 250 at St Patrick's Church and 90 for St Michael's Church at any one time, excluding the clergy and those involved in the liturgy. For contact tracing: BOOKING IS STILL NECESSARY via Online or by contacting the Parish Office during office hours.
- You are required to confirm your name on the registration sheet. If you haven't made a booking, you will be asked to provide your name and a contact number for contact tracing purposes as mandated by the NSW Government.
- No congregational singing should occur
- Face masks are still strongly encouraged
- On arrival at the church, please sanitize your hands using the sanitizer supplied at the foyer.
- Please sit on the designated chairs. However, if you are from the same family group, you are allowed to sit together.
- During Communion, please form one line and you are required to maintain physical distancing at all times.
- At the conclusion of Mass, please disinfect the chair you used before leaving with the disinfecting wipes provided at the church foyer.
- You are requested not to socialize inside or outside the church but leave as soon as possible after Mass.
- You are not allowed to enter the church if you are experiencing cold or flu-like symptoms, have a temperature, been in contact with anyone that is either a suspected or confirmed case of COVID-19 even if you have made a Mass booking.
- We understand the inconvenience the above may pose, but the health of our parishioners and the wider community is our highest concern.

We sincerely thank you for understanding, and for playing your part in keeping our community safe.

Christmas is Sharing please consider Giving to your parish!

Our main source of income is greatly depleted with the restrictions in attending Masses. Please consider how you can still support our Mary Queen of the Family Parish by signing up to contribute online.

Setting up a one-time or recurring donation/Planned Giving is quick and easy. Just go to: www.mqofblacktown.org.au/donations.

Audio and Visual Project Update-donation received as at 31st October 2020, $17,070.25.

Thank you to all the donors. Donations are still welcome.

Thank you so much for your support of our parish. We are grateful!

TAP & GO MACHINE

The passing of collection plates by parishioners along the pews is now a thing of the past as most dioceses and churches have already decided to stop using it to help stop the spread of the virus.

The machine is set at $10, to donate more than $10 simply tap your credit card as many times as you like. It also accepts Apple Pay, Google Pay and Pay Wave. All contributions go to the maintenance and development of the Parish as does the second collection at weekend Masses.

Planned Giving (Direct Debit) is also an option if you wish to do cashless donation to the parish, forms are available in the foyer and on our parish website. Collection buckets are still also available in the church and foyer.
