OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

Christ's Healing Touch

The experience of the leper touched and healed by Jesus in the Gospel (Mark 1:40-45) continues to speak to those who seek and know Jesus and put their faith and trust in Him. The healing of the leper reveals who Jesus is because in the Scriptures no one heals a leper but God alone. Consider the Old Testament story of Naaman, the Syrian who went to the king of Israel that the prophet Elisha might heal him. The king's words "Am I God...that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? (2 Kings 5:7). The assumption therefore is that only God can cure leprosy. So what Jesus did in our gospel today tells us that he is divine, that he is God.

Leprosy is not common in our time. But I had the chance in 2015 to visit a colony of lepers in Calcutta, India. The place is isolated and those who were there were almost forgotten by their loved ones. Imagine the impact of isolation and rejection. This reminds me of the leper in the gospel who came to Jesus and kneeling begged him to make him clean, to heal him. No one would ever come close to the leper and more so touch him because they can be contaminated. Not in Jesus' case. The one who is perfectly pure and holy is the only one who can reverse the effects of leprosy, who can restore once again the wound of isolation. The leper can once again be part of the community and worship God in the Temple.

The spiritual writers have always seen in the Old Testament conception of leprosy as a symbol of sin. In many ways it disfigures our souls and eventually alienates us not only from others and God but even with our selves. It is therefore important not to allow our pride and other sins to grow and spread like a spiritual forest fire. When Jesus reaches out and touches the leper after his supplication, "If you will, you can make me clean," and heals him, he demonstrates more than just another miracle. He reveals his entire mission. He comes to us, died on the cross to save us and cleanse us from our sins. He comes to touch our lives with his compassion and love, so we can experience the fullness of life. This is the true foundation of our mission. We can only share the compassion of Jesus with others when we have experienced it ourselves.

Fr Regie, MSP.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 30:3-4

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

FIRST READING: Lv 13:1-2, 44-46

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 31:1-2. 5. 11.
R. v. 7

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

SECOND READING: 1 Cor 10:31-11:1

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Lk 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mk 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 77:29-30

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;
they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Catechism of the Catholic Church

III. THE HOLY SPIRIT, INTERPRETER OF SCRIPTURE

The senses of Scripture

115 According to an ancient tradition, one can distinguish between two senses of Scripture: the literal and the spiritual, the latter being subdivided into the allegorical, moral and anagogical senses. The profound concordance of the four senses guarantees all its richness to the living reading of Scripture in the Church.

116 The literal sense is the meaning conveyed by the words of Scripture and discovered by exegesis, following the rules of sound interpretation: "All other senses of Sacred Scripture are based on the literal."<sup>83</sup>

117 The spiritual sense. Thanks to the unity of God's plan, not only the text of Scripture but also the realities and events about which it speaks can be signs.

1. The allegorical sense. We can acquire a more profound understanding of events by recognizing their significance in Christ; thus the crossing of the Red Sea is a sign or type of Christ's victory and also of Christian Baptism.<sup>84</sup>

2. The moral sense. The events reported in Scripture ought to lead us to act justly. As St. Paul says, they were written "for our instruction".<sup>85</sup>

3. The anagogical sense (Greek: anagoge, "leading"). We can view realities and events in terms of their eternal significance, leading us toward our true homeland: thus the Church on earth is a sign of the heavenly Jerusalem.<sup>86</sup>

118 A medieval couplet summarizes the significance of the four senses:

The Letter speaks of deeds; Allegory to faith;
The Moral how to act; Anagogy our destiny. <sup>87</sup>

119 "It is the task of exegetes to work, according to these rules, towards a better understanding and explanation of the meaning of Sacred Scripture in order that their research may help the Church to form a firmer judgement. For, of course, all that has been said about the manner of interpreting Scripture is ultimately subject to the judgement of the Church which exercises the divinely conferred commission and ministry of watching over and interpreting the Word of God."<sup>88</sup>

But I would not believe in the Gospel, had not the authority of the Catholic Church already moved me.<sup>89</sup>

Apology for a billing error on Credit Card Giving

We apologize for a billing error on your Credit Card Giving for the February month.

We realized that the donors have been charged double due to a system glitch. The error is irreversible and the only way to correct it is to process individual refunds to the donors account, which is impractical due to the volume of data in the file. Hence, to correct the error, we promised not to process the March contribution to offset the error. We will ensure that this will not happen in the future. Again, please accept our apologies.

Thank you for understanding and your continued financial support to our parish. God bless.
