Last week we went out into the desert with Jesus; this week we climb the mountain. Last week we went into the isolation of the desert; this week we climb the mountain surrounded by saints, Peter and James and John. In all this, we are presented with the full gamut of the Christian life.

Yes, there are moments where we want to cry out with Peter: 'It is wonderful for us to be here'! We feel on fire for the Lord; we love our faith; we feel close to God. But there are times too when we feel as dry as a desert. There are times when we can almost hear God audibly, that's how close he seems; and there are times when the only voice we seem to hear is the voice of the Tempter: Satan. The first are moments of consolation; the second, moments of desolation.

All of this is the Christian life. There is no selecting one or the other. There is no preferring one to the other, as if that will make a difference. All of us, if we are seriously trying to grow in our faith spend time in the desert and on the mountain, time in desolation and in consolation. It's just going to happen.

The basic fact for us to keep before us, though, is that Jesus Christ is there in the desert and he is there on the mountain. We get ourselves into all sorts of problems when we forget that and think he is only in one place and not the other. Typically, we do this when we are in the desert, when we are going through some desolation and we tell ourselves that Jesus must not be there; he is on the mountain where it is wonderful to be. So we tell ourselves. But whenever we do this, whenever we forget that Jesus is with us both on the mountain and in the desert, we lose an opportunity to grow in holiness because we are looking for him elsewhere.

The saints are people who went out into the desert and went up the mountain and learnt to recognise that Jesus was there in both places, in both the moments of consolation and the moments of desolation. Perhaps this Lent, we can focus on learning to recognise Jesus in our moments of desolation just as much as our moments of consolation.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 26:8-9

Of you my heart has spoken, Seek his face.
It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face from me.

FIRST READING: Gen 22:1-2. 9-13. 15-18

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 115:10. 15-19.
R. 114:9

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

SECOND READING: Rom 8:31-34

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mt 17:5

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
From the shining cloud, the Father's voice is heard:
this is my beloved Son, hear him.
Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

GOSPEL: Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone by themselves. There in their presence he was transfigured: his clothes became dazzlingly white, whiter than any earthly bleacher could make them. Elijah appeared to them with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Rabbi,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say; they were so frightened. And a cloud came, covering them in shadow; and there came a voice from the cloud, 'This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him.' Then suddenly, when they looked round, they saw no one with them any more but only Jesus.

As they came down from the mountain he warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. They observed the warning faithfully, though among themselves they discussed what 'rising from the dead' could mean.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Mt 17:5

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.

We are a welcoming parish... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Mary, Queen of the Family. If you are not an active member of this Community, consider partaking in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perchance you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries such as: Minister of Holy Communion, Reader/Commentator, Welcomer, Minister of DVP/Power Point, etc. Volunteers are formally registered by filling out a Join a Ministry form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to members who are unable to participate because of illness or aging.

For more information and to arrange receiving of the sacraments, please contact the Parish Office on 9622 1125.

IV. THE CANON OF SCRIPTURE

The New Testament

124 "The Word of God, which is the power of God for salvation to everyone who has faith, is set forth and displays its power in a most wonderful way in the writings of the New Testament"<sup>96</sup> which hand on the ultimate truth of God's Revelation. Their central object is Jesus Christ, God's incarnate Son: his acts, teachings, Passion and glorification, and his Church's beginnings under the Spirit's guidance.<sup>97</sup>

125 The Gospels are the heart of all the Scriptures "because they are our principal source for the life and teaching of the Incarnate Word, our Savior".<sup>98</sup>

126 We can distinguish three stages in the formation of the Gospels:

1. The life and teaching of Jesus. The Church holds firmly that the four Gospels, "whose historicity she unhesitatingly affirms, faithfully hand on what Jesus, the Son of God, while he lived among men, really did and taught for their eternal salvation, until the day when he was taken up."<sup>99</sup>

2. The oral tradition. "For, after the ascension of the Lord, the apostles handed on to their hearers what he had said and done, but with that fuller understanding which they, instructed by the glorious events of Christ and enlightened by the Spirit of truth, now enjoyed."<sup>100</sup>

3. The written Gospels. "The sacred authors, in writing the four Gospels, selected certain of the many elements which had been handed on, either orally or already in written form; others they synthesized or explained with an eye to the situation of the churches, the while sustaining the form of preaching, but always in such a fashion that they have told us the honest truth about Jesus."<sup>101</sup>

127 The fourfold Gospel holds a unique place in the Church, as is evident both in the veneration which the liturgy accords it and in the surpassing attraction it has exercised on the saints at all times:

There is no doctrine which could be better, more precious and more splendid than the text of the Gospel. Behold and retain what our Lord and Master, Christ, has taught by his words and accomplished by his deeds.<sup>102</sup>

But above all it's the gospels that occupy my mind when I'm at prayer; my poor soul has so many needs, and yet this is the one thing needful. I'm always finding fresh lights there; hidden meanings which had meant nothing to me hitherto.<sup>103</sup>

Thank you so much for your continued support of our parish. We are grateful!

AUDIO AND VISUAL PROJECTS

Thank you for all your support!

We have completed most of the sound and visual requirements at our St Patrick's and St Michael's churches. Without your big hearts, we can't accomplish the said project. God bless you more.

TAP & GO MACHINE

The passing of collection plates by parishioners along the pews is now a thing of the past as most dioceses and churches have already decided to stop using it to help stop the spread of the virus.

The machine is set at $10, to donate more than $10 simply tap your credit card as many times as you like. It also accepts Apple Pay, Google Pay and Pay Wave. All contributions go to the maintenance and development of the Parish as does the second collection at weekend Masses.

Planned Giving (Direct Debit) is also an option if you wish to do cashless donation to the parish, forms are available in the foyer and on our parish website. Collection buckets are still also available in the church and foyer.

Caritas AUSTRALIA

Margret is a teacher at a vocational school for deaf students in the Solomon Islands that suffered long-term water shortages and damage for Tropical Cyclone Harold. With Caritas Australia's support, Margret's school installed water tanks, repaired cyclone damage and implemented COVID-19 prevention measures, and is now planning to boost food security.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2021 and help people living with disabilities in the Solomon Islands gain access to education and clean water, empowering them with skills to protect our common home.

You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413

Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary was founded in Dublin, Ireland on 7th September 1921.

It is a lay Catholic organization whose members are giving service to the church on a voluntary basis in almost every country.

The objective of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work.

The unit of the legion of Mary is called a presidium, which holds a weekly meeting, which consists of prayer, reports and discussions. Persons who wish to join the Legion must apply for membership in a Praesidium.

The works of the Legion - Active membership

The legion sees as its priority the spiritual and social welfare of each individual. The members participate in the life of the parish through visitation of families, the sick, both in their homes and in hospitals and through collaboration in every apostolic and missionary undertaking sponsored by the parish. Every legionary is required to carry out a weekly apostolic work in the spirit of faith and in union with Mary.

For all states of the laity the perfect example of spiritual and apostolic life is the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Apostles, who while leading the life common to all here on earth, one filled with family concerns and labors, was always intimately united with her Son and in an entirely unique way cooperated in the work of the Savior. All should devoutly venerate her and commend their life and apostolate to her maternal care.

Auxiliary membership

This membership is open to Priests, Religious and lay people who wish to associate themselves with the Legion by undertaking a service of prayer in its name.

Pope John Paul II now St John Paul II made the following address to Italian Legionaries

"Yours is an eminently Marian spirituality, not only because the legion glories in carrying Mary's name as its unfurled banner, but above all becomes its basis, its methods of spirituality and apostolate on the dynamic principle of union with Mary, on the truth of the intimate participation of the Virgin Mary in the plan of salvation. In other words, you intend to render your service to every person, who is the image of Christ with the spirit and solicitude of Mary."

Catechist Information sessions

Do you want to know more about the Catechist Ministry?

What help is provided? What do we teach?

Then come to one of the short sessions held at 10:30am on Sunday 7th March or Monday 8th March at 7pm in Sid Mosely Centre at St Michael's .
All your questions answered.

Hope to see you there.
