MQOF Youth Ministry 2021 and beyond...

Last Sunday, 28 February 2021, we had formally launched the Parish's Youth Ministry 2021 and beyond at the 5:30PM's Youth Led Mass at St Patrick's church. The members of the newly formed Parish Youth Council (PYC) and youth leaders were commissioned as they take the parish youth leadership in walking and sharing the light of Christ with the youth of our parish and preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to them.

The Parish Youth Council is composed of youth leaders, parents, youth minister and clergy. There will be mainly three youth groups in the parish—young adults' group, secondary school age group and primary school age group. Kindly watch out for more information about the programs for each youth group.

In addition to the specific youth group programs, there will be two main events every month that we invite all young people in the parish. Please join us for the First Friday's Devotion (Holy Hour for Youth) at 6:30PM followed by 7:30PM Mass and the 4th Sunday's Youth Led Mass at St Patrick's church at 5:30PM. We are planning to organise Youth Pilgrimage and Youth Retreat sometime this year.

As the African proverb reminds us that 'it takes a village to raise a child', it is our sacred duty as part of our Christian responsibility to accompany our young people in their faith journey according to the Gospel and teachings of Jesus Christ. We are wholeheartedly asking your support through your prayers as we organise youth programs in our parish for 2021 and beyond. For more information, please do not hesitate to talk to us, your parish team, especially to Jessica Georges, our parish youth minister.

May God bless us always!

Fr John Paul

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Mary, Queen of the Family Parish is a welcoming, diverse, multicultural, Catholic community.

We seek: to live, teach and share the joy of the Gospel; to grow as disciples of Jesus through prayer, witness and action and to respond to the needs of the family in the Blacktown community and beyond.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 24:15-16

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare.
Turn to me and have mercy on me,
for I am alone and poor.

FIRST READING: Ex 20:1-17

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 18:8-11.
R. Jn 6:68

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

SECOND READING: 1Cor 1:22-25

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Jn 3:16

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL: Jn 2:13-25

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

During his stay in Jerusalem for the Passover many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he gave, but Jesus knew them all and did not trust himself to them; he never needed evidence about any man; he could tell what a man had in him.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Jn 4:13-14

For anyone who drinks it, says the Lord,
the water I shall give will become in him
a spring welling up to eternal life.

Frankly Speaking...

"Lent is a time for drawing near to Christ by listening to the word of God and celebrating the Sacraments." ...Pope Francis

Catechism of the Catholic Church

IV. THE CANON OF SCRIPTURE

The unity of the Old and New Testaments

128 The Church, as early as apostolic times,<sup>104</sup> and then constantly in her Tradition, has illuminated the unity of the divine plan in the two Testaments through typology, which discerns in God's works of the Old Covenant prefigurations of what he accomplished in the fullness of time in the person of his incarnate Son.

129 Christians therefore read the Old Testament in the light of Christ crucified and risen. Such typological reading discloses the inexhaustible content of the Old Testament; but it must not make us forget that the Old Testament retains its own intrinsic value as Revelation reaffirmed by our Lord himself.<sup>105</sup> Besides, the New Testament has to be read in the light of the Old. Early Christian catechesis made constant use of the Old Testament.<sup>106</sup> As an old saying put it, the New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is unveiled in the New.<sup>107</sup>

130 Typology indicates the dynamic movement toward the fulfillment of the divine plan when "God [will] be everything to everyone."<sup>108</sup> Nor do the calling of the patriarchs and the exodus from Egypt, for example, lose their own value in God's plan, from the mere fact that they were intermediate stages.

V. SACRED SCRIPTURE IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

131 "And such is the force and power of the Word of God that it can serve the Church as her support and vigor, and the children of the Church as strength for their faith, food for the soul, and a pure and lasting fount of spiritual life."<sup>109</sup> Hence "access to Sacred Scripture ought to be open wide to the Christian faithful."<sup>110</sup>

132 "Therefore, the study of the sacred page should be the very soul of sacred theology. The ministry of the Word, too - pastoral preaching, catechetics and all forms of Christian instruction, among which the liturgical homily should hold pride of place - is healthily nourished and thrives in holiness through the Word of Scripture."<sup>111</sup>

133 The Church "forcefully and specifically exhorts all the Christian faithful. . . to learn the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ, by frequent reading of the divine Scriptures. Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ."<sup>112</sup>

The wearing of face mask is strongly encouraged if social distancing is not possible.

For us to accommodate more people in the church congregational singing is not permitted, otherwise we have to observe the 4 square metre rule. Eight people are allowed to sing in the choir.

CONTACT TRACING:

Because NSW Government still requires contact tracing, we are implementing three ways to do this:

- Sign-in using the QR Code displayed near the entrance doors.
- Mass Attendance Slips MUST be completed by each household per mass. Slips are available in the foyer.
- Online booking via Calendly. To register, go to: <https://mqofblacktown.org.au>, registration will close midnoon of every Friday.

To maximise the use of our liturgical space, please observe the following:

- Families and those living under one household sit together.
- Proceed to end of row if vacant.
- Leave 3 chairs empty between you and another household.
- The elderly, those with health conditions, flu-like symptoms and low-immune system are still advised to stay at home. Catholics from Parramatta Diocese are still dispensed from their Sunday Mass obligation until further notice.
- You are required to sanitise your hands on arrival at the church and disinfect your chair after the Mass. Sanitizer and wipes are provided at the church foyers.

We sincerely thank you for understanding, and for playing your part in keeping our community safe.
