IN THE NAME OF GOD: FATHER, SON AND HOLY SPIRIT

Jesus sent his disciples for the mission to the world with these words, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them all the commands I gave you (Matthew 28:18-20). Before Jesus ascended into heaven, he breathed on his disciples the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit and commanded them "as the Father has sent me, so am I sending you." God reveals himself to us as the Holy Trinity and to experience his inner self is an extraordinary gift to us.

This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. We turn our hearts and minds to this mystery of God in faith. The Holy Spirit given to us in Pentecost will help us enter into the mystery and to the truth of God. The work of the Holy Spirit continues to unfold this mystery in the Sacraments of the Church- in Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Sacred Order, Anointing of the Sick, Reconciliation, and Marriage. Jesus promised in our Gospel that "when the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you to complete truth" (John 16:13). Mere human mind would not be able to comprehend this truth and we are arrogant if we demand that we should be able to. The Catechism, quoting St Augustine, tells us: "Even when he reveals himself, God remains a mystery beyond words: 'If you understood him, it would not be God'" (CCC 230).

Perhaps the closest experience of God as a Trinity is mirrored in the purity of love. Mother Teresa said "where there is love, there is God." The very nature of the Holy Trinity is a communion of interpersonal love, and he is pouring himself out, making a selfless gift of himself not only at the beginning of creation when he breathed on us his Spirit giving us life but also in God's act of redemption in Jesus Christ who breathed on us again the Holy Spirit to restore us and make us new creation. So then we are called to love like Jesus, embracing our sufferings for the sake of loving God and others. St Paul in the second reading wrote, "these sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us." May this beautiful feast of the Most Holy Trinity bring us closer to God and his truth and proclaim it to others in words and actions as missionary disciples of Jesus.

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

FIRST READING: PRV 8:22-31

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 8:4-9. R. V.2

(R) O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING: ROM 5:1-5

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

PART TWO: THE CELEBRATION OF THE CHRISTIAN MYSTERY SECTION TWO THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH CHAPTER TWO THE SACRAMENTS OF HEALING

VII. The Acts of the Penitent

1450 "Penance requires . . . the sinner to endure all things willingly, be contrite of heart, confess with the lips, and practice complete humility and fruitful satisfaction."<sup>49</sup>

Contrition

1451 Among the penitent's acts contrition occupies first place. Contrition is "sorrow of the soul and detestation for the sin committed, together with the resolution not to sin again."<sup>50</sup>

1452 When it arises from a love by which God is loved above all else, contrition is called "perfect" (contrition of charity). Such contrition remits venial sins; it also obtains forgiveness of mortal sins if it includes the firm resolution to have recourse to sacramental confession as soon as possible.<sup>51</sup>

1453 The contrition called "imperfect" (or "attrition") is also a gift of God, a prompting of the Holy Spirit. It is born of the consideration of sin's ugliness or the fear of eternal damnation and the other penalties threatening the sinner (contrition of fear). Such a stirring of conscience can initiate an interior process which, under the prompting of grace, will be brought to completion by sacramental absolution. By itself however, imperfect contrition cannot obtain the forgiveness of grave sins, but it disposes one to obtain forgiveness in the sacrament of Penance.<sup>52</sup>

1454 The reception of this sacrament ought to be prepared for by an examination of conscience made in the light of the Word of God. the passages best suited to this can be found in the moral catechesis of the Gospels and the apostolic Letters, such as the Sermon on the Mount and the apostolic teachings.<sup>53</sup>

PARISH NEWS AND EVENTS

RAISE THE ROOF APPEAL - NEW ROOF FOR ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH

Store your riches in Heaven, help us RAISE THE ROOF of St Patrick's Church.

As of the 9th of June 2022, donations received is $27,674.95. We thank the parishioners who have shared their treasure to our Raise the Roof Appeal. We are praying that more will respond generously to our appeal because it's only through your continued support that we can make the roof of the House of our God rebuild!

Our roof project is composed of the preparation, construction, and completion phase. The St Pat's roof is to be properly rebuilt to provide a safe and lasting haven for all parishioners and visitors. The preparation phase is a bit slow as we faced hurdles in securing the original roof plan of the church. We are working closely with our volunteers who have building, structural and architectural backgrounds to draft repair recommendations, draw new roof plans and prepare project cost estimates, etc. So, at this point, we still have no idea as to what we are facing, with regards to options, costs, and complexities. However, we made the call to kick off our 'Raise the Roof' campaign a few weeks ago, to at least get things started. But, at the same time, we know that, realistically, this is going to involve years of financial support and commitment from us all. We are also in communication with the Diocese and, when more is known, will work with them to determine other funding options, how they might assist us. We will also commit to consulting you, our fellow parishioners, in the meantime, we ask for your generosity and prayers and, thank you for your ongoing support. It is much appreciated.

If you have any questions or, if you can assist or support us in any way, due to your expertise or background, please do not hesitate to contact the Parish Office on 9622 1125.

4. Set up a new Planned Giving or increase your current one via Credit Card or Direct Debit from bank account (this form is available in the foyer)

All proceeds will be going for the cost of candles, oils, incense, altar bread, wines, hand sanitisers, soap, paper, cleaning products, and many other necessities that we take for granted which cost us about $615 per week or $32,000 p.a.
