Darkness and Light

The prophet Isaiah (9:1-6) prophesied a liberation of the people of God during the time of great distress, when the Southern Kingdom of Judah was exiled in Babylon. People were confused, lost and most of all suffering from oppression. The message is about HOPE. The prophecy anticipates the day when "the people who walked in darkness have seen the great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone." For those who truly longed for salvation from God, this message was a great consolation and encouragement, while patiently waiting for the Messiah to come and save them. We know that this is being fulfilled in the birth of Jesus Christ, the light of the world. He said in John 8:12, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

The Gospel (Luke 2:1-14) tells us the history, written through the eyes of faith, of what God has revealed. It is the fulfilment of God's promise that through the line of David a king would be born, and his "kingdom will have no end." This is what the angel Gabriel told Mary in the annunciation (Luke 1:31-33). But this king whose name is Jesus (Yahweh saves) fulfils God's promise in a radical way, because his throne is the cross and he saves his people by the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 1:21). Christmas tells us this story of the Good News of the birth of Jesus Christ that hopefully brings joy to one's heart and gives us hope for our salvation.

Let us turn to our Blessed Mother who has seen and pondered the great mystery of God coming to us in the flesh and has "kept all these things in her heart." May we not lose our sense of awe and wonder of this mystery, for a God who is almighty truly became like us except sin, walking with us until we reach our true homeland. John testified, "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten Son from the Father" (John 1:14).

Brothers and sisters may this Christmas bring hope, peace, and joy in each one of you and your families. May the Word of God inspire and encourage you to continue to trust in Him, who is truly with us in Jesus Christ. I pray for you all, and may the Lord bless you in every way. From all of us in the parish team, we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!

Alleluia, alleluia! Tomorrow the wickedness of the earth will be destroyed: the Saviour of the world will be our king. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mt 1:18-25 (Shorter form)

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

The Virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'. When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord told him to do: he took his wife to his home and, though he had not had intercourse with .

THE LITURGY THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD (CHRISTMAS) DAY

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cf. Is 9:5

A child is born for us, and a son is given to us; his sceptre of power rests upon his shoulder, and his name will be called Messenger of great counsel.

FIRST READING: IS 52:7-10

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 97:1-6. R. V.3.

(R.) All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

SECOND READING: HEB 1:1-6

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Mt 1:23

Alleluia, alleluia! A holy day has dawned upon us. Come you nations and adore the Lord. Today a great light has come upon the earth. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Jn 1:1-5. 9-14 (Shorter form)

In the beginning was the Word: the Word was with God and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things came to be, not one thing had its being but through him. All that came to be had life in him and that life was the light of men, a light that shines in the dark, a light that darkness could not overpower. The Word was the true light that enlightens all men; and he was coming into the world. He was in the world that had its being through him, and the world did not know him.

He came to his own domain and his own people did not accept him. But to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to all who believe in the name of him who was born not out of human stock or urge of the flesh or will of man but of God himself. The Word was made flesh, he lived among us.

And we saw his glory, the glory that is his as the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf. Ps 97:3

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
