Welcome the Season of Advent

Are you busy again preparing for Christmas celebrations? Let us take care that we don't lose sight of the true spirit of Christmas. The flip side when spiritual preparation for Christmas is replaced by material things, by consumerism and materialism, we forget or take for granted the ultimate reason behind our celebrations. We fail to see the true meaning of Christmas.

The season of Advent helps us to be in touch with our interiority as we celebrate the coming of God in the flesh (incarnation) and wait for the second coming of Christ. The central theme for this season is watching and staying awake. This is an interior disposition, a disposition of the heart always seeking and longing for God, for his coming, especially when we are living in darkness and sin. Our first reading today (Isaiah 63:16-17, 19; 64:2-7) expresses this realisation of having wandered far away from God and a longing to return to Him, "You, Lord, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever. Why do you let us wander, O Lord, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage." There is a thirsting for God in humble acceptance of sins, but full of trust in the faithfulness of God, remembering the good things he has done to them.

In our Gospel (Mark 13:33-37), Jesus exhorts us to be watchful. He likens this interior disposition to the servants who keep their eyes on the watch for the coming of the master, fulfilling their responsibilities and doing what they are told to do even if there's no one observing them, for they do not know the time. This attitude is in contrast to those who are not taking responsibilities of their actions, carefree, and unprepared when the Lord comes. Our encounter with God may come as a surprise, in a least expected way. So let us always be ready.

To welcome the Advent season is to stay spiritually awake. We need to identify what puts us to a deep sleep, to a slumber, missing out the advent of God in our lives or straying our spirits not to watch the coming of the Lord. There's a lot of factors that bring us to this state, but sin can numb our sensitivity to the presence of God. It is important then at this time that we renew our longing to be reconciled with God, to give us the grace of conversion and transformation. Coming to the sacrament with humble and contrite heart is a way to enter the spirit of Advent. Let us pray that our preparations for Christmas may be enhanced by our willingness to receive Christ in our lives.

OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

WELCOME
TO
MARY, QUEEN OF THE FAMILY
PARISH, BLACKTOWN

We are a welcoming parish... you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected by the Catholic Community of Mary, Queen of the Family. If you are not an active member of this Community, consider partaking in what we have to offer. We serve the Community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, youth and comfort to the sick and mourning. In addition to our spiritual and outreach organisations, perchance you have an interest in joining one of our many liturgical ministries such as: Minister of Holy Communion, Reader/Commentator, Welcomer, Collectors, Minister of DVP/Power Point, Catechists etc.

Volunteers are formally registered by filling out a Join a Ministry form that is then entered into the parish data system (information supplied remains confidential). These forms are available from the parish office or in the church foyer, or for further information call the Parish Office on 9622 1125. ~ The Parish Team

SUNDAY FLOCK

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"Would that you might meet us doing right."

Sheepish Question:

How will I present myself when Jesus comes to me this Advent?

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT ~ YR B

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PSALM 24:1-3

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 63:16-17; 64:1. 3-8

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 79:2-3. 15-16. 18-19 R. V.4

Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 1:3-9

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: PSALM 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia! Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: MARK 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Psalm 84:13

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.

ELEMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC MASS

Episode 13 : Music and Musicam Sacram

The 1967 Instruction, Musicam Sacram, is the most definitive statement on music in the Mass since the Second Vatican Council. This Instruction both clarifies and articulates the Church's understanding of sacred music.

Music Sacram describes three degrees or categories of texts of the Mass to be sung.

The first category— and the most important— includes the parts of the Mass that are dialogues. Since the Trinity is a "dialogue of love", how appropriate that we imitate God's own example!

The second category includes the "Ordinary of the Mass". Texts such as the Kyrie, Gloria, Creed, and the Lamb of God are found in this group. According to Musicam Sacram, they should only be sung if the first category is sung.

The third category is comprised of the "Proper of the Mass". It is characterized by things that change from Mass to Mass, such as the Entrance Song, the Offertory Song and the Communion Song.

Musicam Sacram

For the choice of parts to be sung, those should be first that of their nature are more important and particularly those sung by the priest or other ministers and answered by the congregation or sung by the priest and congregation together. (n°. 7)

The real solemnity of a liturgical service, it should be kept in mind, depends not on a more ornate musical style or more ceremonial splendor but on a worthy and reverent celebration. (n°. 11)

IN THE TRADITION

"Be The word of God draws each of us into a conversation with the Lord: the God who speaks teaches us how to speak to him.... In this way our word to God becomes God's word, thus confirming the dialogical nature of all Christian revelation, and our whole existence becomes a dialogue with the God who speaks and listens, who calls us and gives direction to our lives. Here the word of God reveals that our entire life is under the divine call" Pope Benedict XVI Verbum Domini, n°. 24

THE TEACHING OF THE CHURCH

"TSong and music fulfill their function as signs in a manner all the more significant when they are more closely connected... with the liturgical action, according to three principal criteria: beauty expressive of prayer, the unanimous participation of the assembly at the designated moments, and the solemn character of the celebration " Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), n°. 1156.
