Sunday Connection

Today's Gospel continues our reading from Mark and describes what some believe was likely to have been a typical day in Jesus' ministry. Jesus and the disciples that chose to follow him in last week's Gospel arrive at Capernaum, a small village on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus teaches in the synagogue on the Sabbath. Mark reports that the people respond to Jesus' teaching with astonishment, noting Jesus' authority and contrasting it with the scribes'. Early in Mark's Gospel we already find evidence of the tension that will manifest itself fully in Jerusalem.

After Jesus' preaching, an even more astonishing thing happens. A man possessed with an unclean spirit calls out to Jesus. As we see in this example and throughout Mark's Gospel, the spirits and demons seem to know Jesus and are often fearful of him. In fact, they seem to understand Jesus' identity better than his disciples. As we will read again and again in Mark's Gospel, Jesus orders the spirit to be quiet and drives the unclean spirit out of the man. Jesus' ability to heal those possessed by demons is an indication of his power over evil.

In the prescientific age of Jesus' time, all illnesses were understood to be manifestations of evil and sinfulness. Our modern understanding of illness is very different. Possession by unclean spirits may have been a way to describe what we might call mental illness today. It may have even been a way of describing certain kinds of physical conditions. There is evidence that there were many kinds of exorcists and healers in first-century Palestine. Jesus appears to be like these healers, but he heals with unique authority and connects his healing activities with the words of his preaching.

We are missing the point that Mark is trying to make in this Gospel, however, if we try to explain away the healing work of Jesus. The crowds see in Jesus' cure of the possessed man further affirmation of his authority. Jesus' power to heal gives greater credence to his teaching. Jesus impresses the crowds through his words, which are manifested with power in his deeds. Mark's Gospel tells us that because of the authority with which he healed, Jesus' fame spread throughout all of Galilee.

SUNDAY FLOCK

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"I will raise up for them a prophet ... and will put my words into his mouth.

Sheepish Question:

Why is simply living ethically and serving others not enough?

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~ YR B

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: PSALM 105:47

Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

FIRST READING: DEUTERONOMY 18:15-20

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 94:1-2. 6-9. R. V.9

R ~ If today, you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 7:32-35

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Matthew 4:16

Alleluia, alleluia! A people in darkness have seen a great light: a radiant dawn shines on those lost in death. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 1:21-28

After Jesus and his followers went as far as Capernaum, and as soon as the Sabbath came Jesus went to the synagogue and began to teach. And his teaching made a deep impression on them because, unlike the scribes, he taught them with authority.

In their synagogue just then there was a man possessed by an unclean spirit, and it shouted, 'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' But Jesus said sharply, 'Be quiet! Come out of him!' And the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and with a loud cry went out of him. The people were so astonished that they started asking each other what it all meant. 'Here is a teaching that is new' they said 'and with authority behind it: he gives orders even to unclean spirits and they obey him.' And his reputation rapidly spread everywhere, through all the surrounding Galilean countryside.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Cf Psalm 30:17-18

Let your face shine on your servant. Save me in your merciful love.

O Lord, let me never be put to shame, for I call on you.

ELEMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC MASS

Episode 19: The Door of the Church

SUMMARY

The door of the church is not simply a practical or pragmatic thing; it is not simply for entry and exit. The door of every church is a sacramental sign that reminds us of our future entry into paradise. The Church's worship always moves us in the direction of our heavenly homeland.

Every church is dedicated before it is put into service for worship; the prayer of dedication tells us what the church building and its furnishings signify.

From the moment of the opening of the doors, the crossing of the threshold, of the entering in the doorway becomes significant. This is the place where couples about to be united in Holy Matrimony are greeted by the Church's official representative. This is the place, too, where that same couple will be greeted again as they carry their children for Baptism. Here, again, is the station where mourners pause as they carry their deceased loved one a final time to church for the Mass of Christian burial. Every Catholic, crossing this threshold, pauses to dip fingers into holy water and trace the Sign of the Cross.

IN THE TRADITION

"O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter the king of glory!

Who is this king of glory?

Psalm 24:9-10

"Enter the gates of the Lord with thanksgiving, His courts with songs of praise."

Psalm 100:4

"The way lies open from earth to heaven. Let the prophet's trumpet sound again... The King of glory will make his way in, to intercede for us at the Father's right hand."

THE TEACHING OF THE CHURCH

"The Church is a sheepfold whose one and indispensable door is Christ. It is a flock of which God Himself foretold He would be the shepherd, and whose sheep, although ruled by human shepherds; are nevertheless continuously led and nourished by Christ Himself, the Good Shepherd and the Prince of the shepherds, who gave His life for the sheep."

Lumen Gentium, n° 6

"In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem toward which we journey as pilgrims.."

Sacrosanctum Concilium, n° 8

IN THE PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Grant that, with all our brothers and sisters who will celebrate the divine mysteries in the church, we may come at last to the heavenly Jerusalem.
