THE COMMENTARY GUIDE

Sunday 15 November 2026

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good (Evening)/ (Morning), we welcome you all to (tonight's Vigil)/ (Sunday) mass here at Mary Queen of the Family Parish.

Please switch your mobile phones to off or silent please. (PAUSE and count to five)

Today, Jesus reminds us to use the talents that God has given us generously for the good of others and His Kingdom.

Please stand and join in (the entrance hymn/the entrance antiphon).

Entrance Antiphon

(Only recite when there is no Choir)

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
You will call upon me, and I will answer you,
and I will lead back your captives from every place.

OVERVIEW

Sunday 15 Nov 2026

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Entrance Antiphon

Jeremiah 29:11,12,14

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
You will call upon me, and I will answer you,
and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading

Proverbs 31:10-13. 19-20. 30-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs

Give her a share in what she has worked for.

A perfect wife – who can find her?
She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband's heart has confidence in her,
from her he will derive no little profit.
Advantage and not hurt she brings him
all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax,
she does her work with eager hands.
She sets her hands to the distaff,
her fingers grasp the spindle.
She holds out her hand to the poor,
she opens her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty;
the woman who is wise is the one to praise.
Give her a share in what her hands have worked for,
and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 127:1-5. R. v.1

(R.) Happy are those who fear the Lord.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord
   and walk in his ways!
   By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
   You will be happy and prosper. (R.)
2. Your wife like a fruitful vine
   in the heart of your house;
   your children like shoots of the olive,
   around your table. (R.)
3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
   May the Lord bless you from Zion
   in a happy Jerusalem
   all the days of your life. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

The day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night.

You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it.

But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

Gospel Acclamation

John 15:4. 5

Alleluia, alleluia!
Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord;
my branches bear much fruit.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 25:14-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Because you have been faithful over a few things, enter into the joy of the Lord.

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir", he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."'

Communion Antiphon

Psalm 72:28

To be near God is my happiness,
to place my hope in God the Lord.

THE UNIVERSAL PRAYER

Sunday 15 November 2026
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Celebrant: Brothers and sisters, alert to our needs and the needs of the world let us bring our prayer before the God of all.

Minister: That the Church, entrusted with God's kingdom on earth, will work with creativity and zeal.
(brief pause) Let us pray to the Lord:

Minister: That, on this World Day of the Poor, we will reach out to those who are poor, not just in financial terms, but also those who are voiceless and faceless in our society.
(brief pause) Let us pray to the Lord:

Minister: That our parish community will use their gifts and talents to bear good fruit.
(brief pause) Let us pray to the Lord:

Minister: That the sick and housebound will be blessed and find comfort and healing through Christ
(brief pause) Let us pray to the Lord:

Minister: That all who have died will be embraced by the love of God in his heavenly kingdom, especially those in our Book of Remembrance.
(brief pause) Let us pray to the Lord:

Celebrant: Loving God, as our creator you entrust us with gifts. Hear our prayers and help us to be faithful in sharing our gifts with others as we wait to enter the joy of your kingdom. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
